2. State Department Seeks our Advice on Retirement Seminar:

In making plans for its forthcoming retirement seminar, the State Department has sought our advice on whether or not to include a group of retired persons in a panel discussion. We discussed our experiences with a panel composed of retirees and recommended that State definitely include this feature. Our advice was accepted; State will feature a session titled "The Retiree Speaks." They have invited us to send representatives to the seminar, and we plan to have different members of the Retirement Affairs Division cover the sessions.
